

Please don't allow broadcast ownership to extend beyond the present limitations. We need more competition and diversity within the media, not less! Don't make the current bad situation even worse, by permitting our airwaves to be dominated and controled by only a few powerful companies.